

People v. Rozan. 10PDJ027. April 22, 2010. Attorney Regulation. The Presiding Disciplinary Judge approved a Conditional Admission of Misconduct submitted by the parties and suspended Steven Jay Rozan (Attorney Registration No. 10381) from the practice of law for a period of two years, effective April 22, 2010. Respondent was suspended from the practice of law in the State of Texas for a period of five years with three years stayed, after he violated ethical rules regarding his representation of eleven clients in their criminal matters. He also failed to notify the People of his misconduct within ten days. His misconduct constituted grounds for the imposition of reciprocal discipline pursuant to C.R.C.P. 251.21(a) and violated Colo. RPC 1.3, 1.4, 1.16(d), and 3.4(c).
