

March 22, 1999 People v. Berry, 99PDJ019. Attorney Regulation.

The Presiding Disciplinary Judge accepted a Conditional Admission and issued a public censure in this reciprocal discipline action in which respondent received a public censure in the state of Washington for his misconduct during a trial in 1993 in which he made contemptuous remarks to a judge in response to a ruling, and expressed his personal opinion as to the veracity and credibility of the witnesses he cross-examined.
